

The Progressive
Economics Forum
presents:

PEF Summer School 2011

How to Pay for Progress

A one-day intensive seminar in heterodox economic theory and policy, with a focus on fiscal and macroeconomic policy after the crisis.

Where: University of Ottawa

When: Thursday, June 2, 2011 (just before the CEA conference)

Who: Aimed at grad students, 3rd and 4th year undergrads, and working economists.

Applicants will be asked to write a very short statement expressing their interest in heterodox economics. For admitted students, the PEF aims to fund accommodation for one night (June 1st) and meals on the school day.

If you are interested in attending the school, please contact David Pringle at dpringle@ncf.ca.

