

DON'T RECYCLE THAT TERM PAPER

Re-Use It!

... and Win Valuable Cash Prizes: $1,000 and $500

ENTER THE Progressive Economics Forum's 2013 Student Essay Contest

PRIZES: $1,000 for best graduate paper; $500 for best undergraduate paper

ELIGIBILITY: Open to all Canadian students, studying in Canada or abroad, and international students studying in Canada during the 2012-13 academic year

TOPICS: Any subject related to political economy, economic theory or economic policy that reflects a critical approach to unconstrained markets

JUDGES: Mike Bradfield, Department of Economics, Dalhousie University
Mathieu Dufour, John Jay College of Criminal Justice, City Univ. of New York
Christine Saulnier, Nova Scotia Office, Canadian Centre for Policy Alternatives

PAPERS: English or French; 20-40 pages; 12-point font; double-spaced

SUBMISSIONS: Students may collaborate on a submission, but no one may author more than one submission. E-mail your paper, contact information and the academic status of all authors to vilainbarbu@yahoo.ca by May 3, 2013.

FURTHER DETAILS: www.progressive-economics.ca/student-essay-contest